

Elsewhere in Gangnam

Feel like exploring other areas of Seoul's infamous business and entertainment district? Check out these individual neighborhoods and experience the many different sides to Gangnam!

1 Garosugil, Sinsa-dong

Literally meaning "tree lined street", Garosugil is a hip and trendy road full of restaurants and cafes, where many head to socialize and relax. Garosugil is also home to countless clothes and jewelry boutiques, shoe and bag shops, and big brand stores – shop till you drop before enjoying delicious bite to eat and a coffee!

How to get there from Coex

 By Subway (22 mins) Take the green line to the Seoul National University of Education and change to the orange line 3 in the direction of the Express Bus Terminal. Get off at Sinsa Station and take exit 8. Walk straight for three minutes and Garosugil is on your left

 By Taxi (12 mins) Ask for 'Ga-ro-su-gil' and alight at the top of the street
Taxi fee approx $ 6 from Coex.

2 Gangnam Station

In the very heart of Gangnam lies Gangnam Station ~ a bustling subway stop surrounded by street after street of dining and entertainment. Gangnam Station can get very busy on weekends, and most of the action can be found by taking one of two exits. Take exit 10 for bars, clubs and lively eating and drinking establishments, and take exit 11 for cafes, bakeries and more laid-back restaurants.

How to get there from Coex

By Subway (6 mins) Take the green line 2 in the direction of Seolleung and alight at Gangnam Station. The streets behind the main road on which the station is located are where you'll find most of the entertainment!

By Taxi (5 mins) Ask for 'Gangnam Yuk' ('Yuk' meaning 'station') Taxi fee approx $4 from Coex.

3 Apgujeong and Apgujeong Rodeo

Apgujeong is a relatively newly developed area of Gangnam with a laid back and fashionable feel. A popular destination for romantic dates and relaxed evenings with friends, Apgujeong offers a vast selection of restaurants, live music and wine bars, bowling alleys, and coffee shops. Apgujeong Rodeo street is especially known for its many high-street fashion stores. The Galleria Department Store, CGV movie theater, and Gangnam Tourist Office are also located in Apgujeong.

How to get there from Coex

By Subway (25 mins) Take the green line to the Seoul National University of Education and change to the orange line in the direction of the Express Bus Terminal. Get off at Apgujeong Station and take exit 2.

By Taxi (15 mins) Ask for 'Apgujeong Yuk', or Apgujeong Station. Taxi fee approx $8 from Coex.

4 Cheongdam-dong

Cheongdam-dong is famous for housing flagship designer label stores, up-market eateries, and exclusive art galleries. Head over to Cheongdam-dong for a spot of high-end shopping (or browsing), and culture, followed by some luxury cuisine. Although Cheongdam-dong nightlife is not as energetic as some other Gangnam neighborhoods, a range of swanky cocktail and lounge bars remain open until the early hours.

How to get there from Coex

By Subway (27 minutes) (Cheongdam station is a very short taxi ride or a fifteen minute walk from Coex) Take green line 2 and change at Seolleung to the yellow Bundang line. Change at Gangnam-gu Office station onto the dark green line 7 and alight one stop over at Cheongdam Station. Take exit two.

By Taxi (3 minutes) Ask for 'Cheongdam (also pronounced 'Chungdamh') Station and alight at Taxi fee approx $4 from Coex.

Tip!

Gangnam's roads can become very busy during the evening rush hours (6 – 9pm), and taxi journeys may take up to twice as long and cost twice as much during these times. Other methods of transport mid-evening are advised.
